

2019 Forlorn Hope “Queen of the Sierra” Red (California)

This well-textured California wine is a lively red blend that balances bright acidity with supple tannins. Fruit-forward and unfiltered/unfiltered, this bottle is great with a slight chill.

$20.00

2020 Meinklang “Burgenland” Red (Austria)

A unique blend of Zweigelt, Blaufränkisch, and St. Laurent grapes makes for a youthful and easy-drinking red. Earthiness and spice underscore this wine's juiciness. A perfect bottle to chill while you grill!

$16.00

Montemelino “Malpasso” Vino Rosso (Italy)

An ideal pizza wine! This liter of Sangiovese is organically farmed, hand harvested, and wild fermented. Full of Italian character, expect dusty berry flavors with a hint of peppery spice.

$18.00

2018 Château le Payral “Terres Rouges” Bergerac Merlot (France)

“Terres Rouges” translates to “red earth,” referring to the iron-rich soils where these vines grow. The gentle pressing on the grapes creates a plush expression of Merlot.

$18.75

2020 Old Westminster “Come Together” Piquette (Maryland)

This piquette made from Blaufränkisch and Chambourcin is low-alcohol and low tannin, making it an ideal candidate to stick in the cooler for a picnic!

$19.50

2015 Le Haut-Médoc d’Issan Margaux (France)

A traditional blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot that brings you all of the romance associated with France's Médoc region. Aromatic, silky, and fine textured with warm notes of oak and tobacco.

$37.00

2019 Des Vins D’Envie “Croire au Yeti” Savoie Rouge (France)

This Savoie is a bright bottle packed with juicy raspberry, white pepper, and alpine herb notes. A playful, unconventional blend of Gamay, Mondeuse, and Pinot Noir.

$22.50

2019 Mary Taylor “Coteaux du Giennois” Vins de Loire Rouge (France)

This blend of Pinot Noir and Gamay balances complexly developed dark fruit with crisp freshness. Bonus wine-nerd points if you catch the typo on the bottle!

$22.50